Respectfully presenting petition for action of court and for cause as follows:

On September 21, 2016, this officer received a telephone call from a Detective of the Farmington Hills Police Department. The Detective stated, that on Tuesday, September 20, 2016, in the evening hours, officers of the Farmington Hills Police Department responded to the Petitioner's residence regarding a complaint of shots fired.

Officers arrived at the Petitioner's home and observed the Petitioner outside of his residence. The Petitioner entered his home and would not exit. At this time officer's recovered two (2) gun shell casings on the back porch of the residence.

A stand off ensued with the Petitioner and the Farmington Hills Police Department. The Petitioner eventually exited his residence and was taken into custody.

A search warrant was secured. Upon searching the Petitioner's residence, in his bedroom closet a cut out in the floor was discovered. Recovered inside the cut out of the floor were an A-R 15 assault rifle and a Glock semi automatic hand gun. The two (2) recovered spent shell casings match the aforementioned weapons. One from the A-R 15 Assault Rifle and one from the Glock Hand Gun.

The Petitioner remains in the custody of the Farmington Hills Police Department and is being charged with Felon in Possession of a Firearm and Unlawful Discharge of a Firearm.

PRAYING THAT THE COURT WILL ORDER THE PETITIONER'S BOND BE CANCELLED AND A WARRANT ISSUED FOR HIS ARREST.
